Graduation Ceremony

September 2022

The Achievers: Celebrating next-generation leaders.

Graduating from a modern university like Nexford is a great honor and an achievement that you can be truly proud of. We celebrate your success and look forward to great reports and exploits from the Class of 2022. Go forth and become the great leaders you were destined to be.

A message from the Chief Academic Officer

Congratulations Graduates!

Graduation is a time of such joy and celebration for all of us. Earning your degree is an impressive accomplishment and commemorates that you have met one of your academic goals. You are leaving Nexford University having demonstrated that you have the relevant knowledge and skills needed to achieve your career goals. The Nexford University Team celebrates with you and is reenergized to continue to do the work that we do by supporting learners through their academic journey.

The world is changing, and you are going to be the architects to shape those changes as part of the new global work force. I am proud to work for Nexford University and to watch you and your classmates become the next generation of leaders. Celebrate this milestone and enjoy your success, but remember the best is yet to come!

Best wishes,

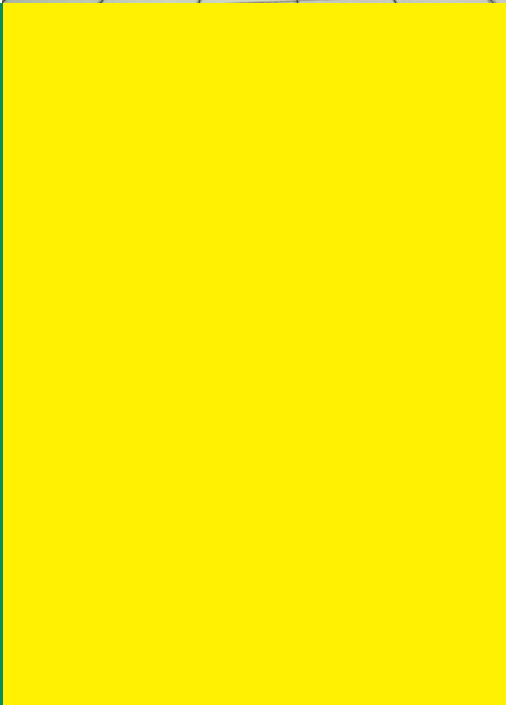

Cathy Plunkett Ed.D
Chief Academic Officer
Nexford University

A look back

2021-2022

Looking back, we are sure that you would have enjoyed the day filled with fun, laughter, camaraderie, and reflection on the sacrifices you made to get you to this point where you now have all the skills necessary to become the next generation of leaders, CEOs, entrepreneurs, and startup founders. We wish you all the best of luck for the future.
